MOE Coach Training

The Executive Coach Training Course for MOE Young Leaders & Entrepreneurs
The Executive Coach Training Course for MOE Young Leaders & Entrepreneurs

At MOE Foundation we believe in the potential of young people and want to identify ways to support their personal and professional growth and development. Today's economy means that many young people find themselves in challenging situations with limited career and life options. We actively seek to support young people, to break the rules of the game and positively disrupt their life experience by providing them with a supportive network, training, development, coaching, mentoring and leadership/entrepreneurial support.

Become an accredited coach and community game changer
We believe in reinforcing young people's dreams - we actively help to make it happen. We know through personal and professional experience that it is vital in life to build a level of self-awareness, confidence, resilience and optimism. More than this, it is important to back yourself to achieve your ambitions.

Equally, knowing how to communicate well with people is an essential skill, both at work and in our personal lives. In today's world, it is often who you know rather than what you know which opens doors and leads to new opportunities.

About the course
This course will provide you with techniques for communicating with people at all levels, whether at work, with friends or with family. You will learn how to be a leader for yourself and others, gain new perspectives on 'what makes people tick' and be able to handle difficult situations like misunderstandings and conflict.

The course supplies you with everything you need to set up a business as a performance coach with corporate, business or personal clients or to become a coach at work in an organisation. When you sign up, we will assign you a MOE Mentor who will support you in your journey, making you part of the MOE community.

About the programme and MOE
We actively encourage our MOE community members to set out their dream board, which includes understanding what their leadership or entrepreneurial ambition is. Once defined, we seek to assist our MOE members in game changing their lives.

Our coaching programme in association with Carol Wilson, founder of www.performancecoachtraining.com, seeks to assist our MOE Mentors and Mentees in the following ways:

- Identifying your purpose - we call this dream boarding
- Clarifying your personal values and what energises you
- Understanding what it means to be a purposeful coach and leader
- Taking charge and control of your life and professional career
- Establishing a community that aids you in achieving your ambitions
- Clarifying the life that you would love to lead - your lifelessordinary
- Understanding your professional, leadership or entrepreneurial journey to date and planning the next steps

Professional Credibility
The Executive Coach Training Course is recognised by the Association for Coaching, the Institute of Leadership & Management, Portsmouth University Business School and approved by Sir John Whitmore, Chairman of Performance Consultants International.
